We are sure that this admirable action would really improve the morale of the Association members and boost their confidence to sustain in their hard works for the betterment of the organization.

At this juncture, the Association would like to reiterate the demands raised in our representation dated 15.05.2019 and would request the respected CMD to suitably advise the respective wings responsible for promotion of Class I&II to call for the fresh panels on before the crucial date without fail so as to avoid delay in legitimated promotions.

With warm regards,

Yours sincerely,

Autumn
